PLADERS

Moving in through rainbows

Cities on fire

Moving in on rainbows

Cities on fire

Keep a look afraid now

Keep it til it rots

We all look afraid now

Afraid now

We all look down

Round, round

Out of dimension

Into this veil of screaming

Screaming

Obsidian, like wind moving forward

Bleak forever

Gonna see everything on fire

Gonna see everything on fire

Closer

Closer

STARGATE

Legion

Legion

Legion

Legion

Legion

Upon this hill and the cause of Time
We echoed and moved beyond Forever

Light touched our eyes
And casting-out this deliverance
We moved between the shelter of our dreams

Everything enters
And left forgotten

Cometh, I
Through this place of steel
Energies unravel
And counter-espionage about the way I feel

To the stars, we will look
And cast-out all our dreams
Evermore will malfunction
Malfunction

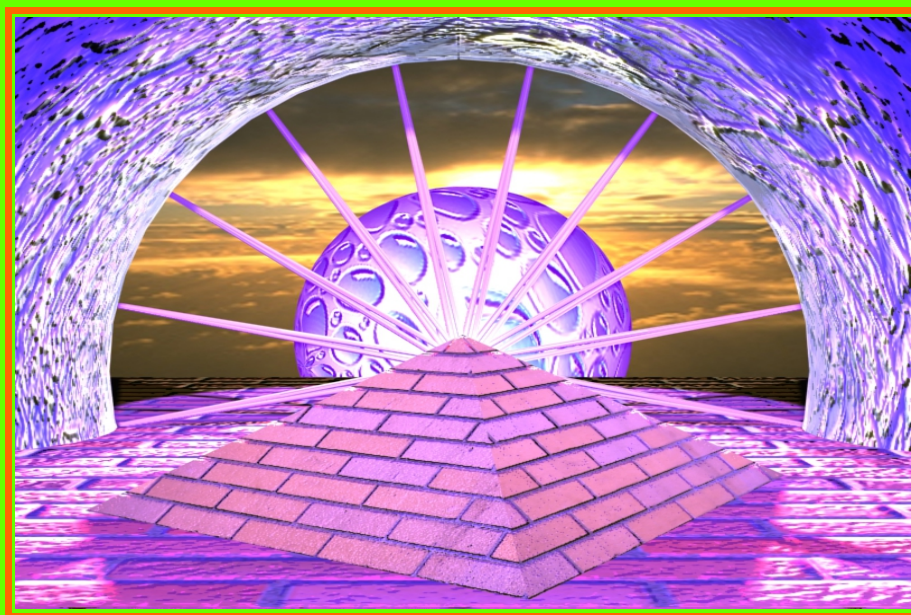

In so much light

We will dream of the bleak horizon
And cast forth our life

Energies unravel and people turn and dance
And move away from all this blinding fire

This blinding fire
Where thoughts, mechanisms
Twist and turn... unravelling
Casting-out all this horizon

As I grope with the shattered backbrain
I dream of silence
And wash away throughout the many rains
Until we came to a place on the bridge
Higher than all lives
Further than all day
We move away
Move away

SATURDAY SONG

Listening to the sound of sweet glow
Apparition appears in the cosmic flow

Led into conquest

Fallen to earth

Lamb of darkness

Fire of my mirth

Fields run like rain

Down to hills of pain

Energy ravel, dispels dark dreams

Echoes coming across the moon

From ancient hearts

And mad, mad parts

Into this dread I will rise

And fall, in a basket of a holy different ride

And can you see?

And can you be?

This new eternity

Fallen on earth

A million miles

Never ending sunshine

Living between time

Listening to the sound of sweet glow

Led into conquest
Fallen to earth
Lamb of darkness
Fire of my mirth

Fields run like rain

From ancient hearts
And fall, in a basket of a holy different ride

And can you see?
And can you be?
This new eternity
Fallen on earth
A million miles
Living between time

And can you see?
And can you be?
This new eternity
Fallen on earth
A million miles

LATTER DAY

In the peace and tranquility
Came the light of all time
Moved beyond hate and starting its crime
Behave said the dreamer
Derange said a schemer

Within these cold chambers
Smouldering embers

Nameless, famous?

In case your wondering why
Flames that reach to the sky

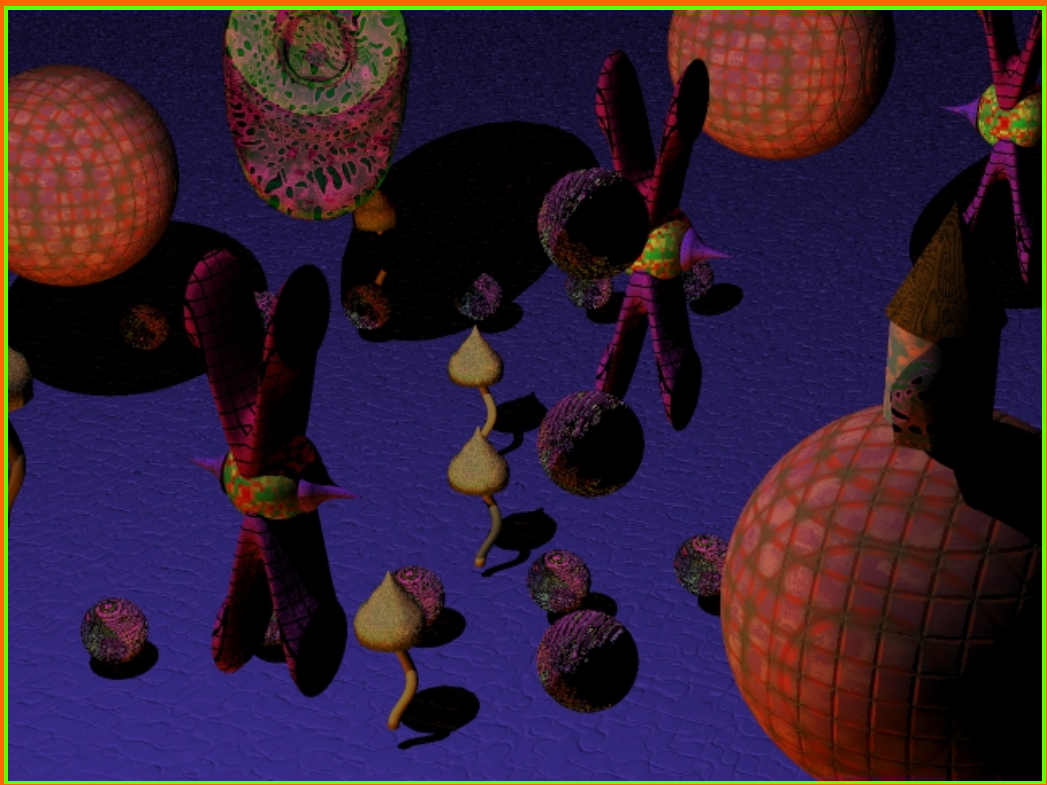

Can summon demon zones
Can overthrow their thrones

Can summon demon zones

Within these cold chambers

Cannot this depraved heart
Become half as smart?
As you lying there
As you dying there

Cannot this depraved heart
Become half as smart?
As you lying there
As you dying there

TRANSFORM

There stood the creature, looking hazily into the cavern
Endless streams of imagination, part the sea and step beyond
The dreaming came and went, believing in temptation
Why is this happening? What is this point?

Needless to say, involvement escalated
Brandishing flares and wheat
Living inside this planetary orbit
Destiny evolved and spoke of fair whispers

Do we have any time?
Do we have any space?

Neighbours from Hell, stood to tell
And moved before the throne...ticking....tocking

Driven in astonishing light
Awoken in glorified sight
This wept on for quite some time
Then episodes of recurring visions
Sprinkling stardust
Cosmological emmissions

Behave, be slave
Frozen and cold
Ice of old
Laced with the phantoms that cracked my head

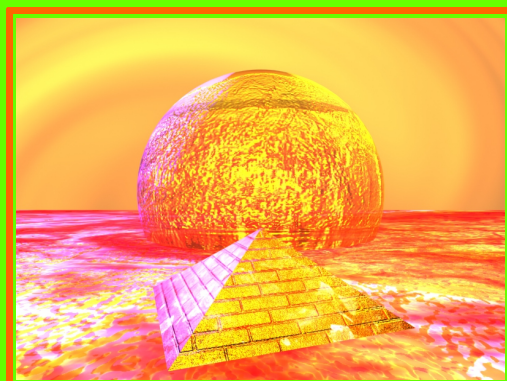

Ordained. Prefaned. Deranged. Insaned
This leeching life consumes me and I fall
Down, Down and Down
Calling me, taunting me
Releasing me into Earth's potted histories

Avenues distilled in a hue
Of certain distraction
Calculates, obliterates
All manufactured security

And there in the clouds
Sweeping across the sky
Fate smothered me and I knew I could fly

And there in the clouds
Fate smothered me and I knew I could fly

And there in the clouds
Fate smothered me and I knew I could fly
Could fly

BEATS

The world is a vampire
In forests of you
In decadent lanterns
The colours unveil

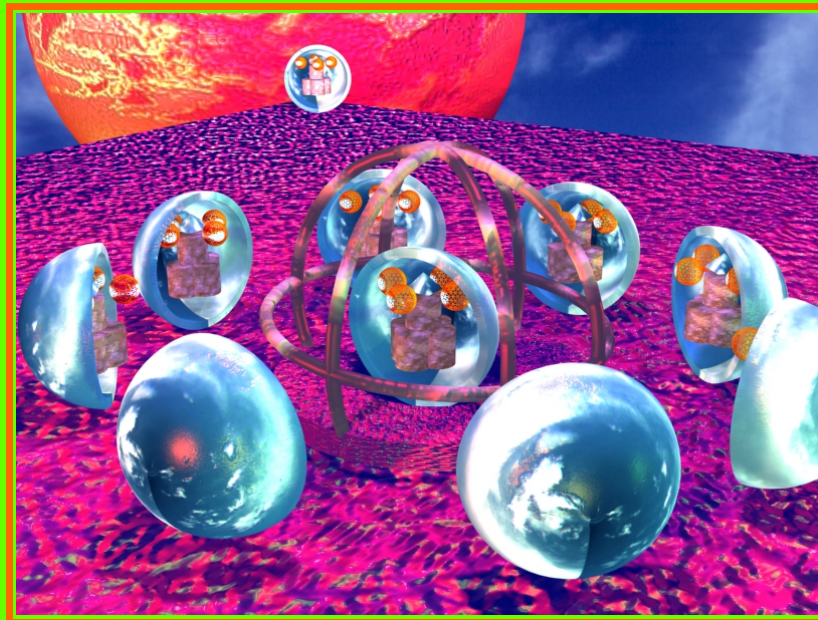

Spinning cities
Of lands of you
The Lord is a vampire
Like substance
Like... crew

In partitions of glory
Went spinning a story
O, lifting up spears
The days and years
Sent kingdoms rushing through

In a week we would see
What the hell is wrong with seeing?
The larynx was shielded
Like dead that wield it
The seventh scroll
Did it see... this?
Fortune wailed
The ship that sailed
The glories of another
Few

The glove of chaos
The naked seance
Scanning data
Killing... the instigator

Messing around
The saints sad shroud
The colours of another
Few
